GUARANTEED ACCESS PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM (GAPP)
Key Information

IMPORTANT: The content below is provided for informational purposes only.

The Guaranteed Access Partnership Program is managed by the participating institutions. The Maryland Higher Education Commission does not oversee the program.

The Guaranteed Access Partnership Program (GAPP) was created in 2016 and provides a matching grant award to eligible Maryland students who receive a Guaranteed Access Grant and enroll at a participating Maryland independent college or university as a new undergraduate student.

The Maryland institutions that are participating include:

- Capitol Technology University
- Goucher College
- Hood College
- Johns Hopkins University
- Loyola University Maryland
- Maryland Institute College of Art
- McDaniel College
- Mount St. Mary's University
- Notre Dame of Maryland University
- Stevenson University
- St. John's College
- Washington Adventist University
- Washington College

To learn about GAPP at your institution and your potential eligibility, please contact your institution's financial aid office so that they may assist you in completing the process.

Additional information about GAPP can be found on the Maryland Independent College and University Associate (MICUA) website.
