Dear President Miller and Speaker Busch:

In accordance with Education Article §15-106.8, the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) presents the information below on nonresident tuition exemptions for qualified children of undocumented immigrants. The following data are an aggregation of submissions provided by all public postsecondary institutions in the State.

Term	Public Community Colleges		Public Four-Year Institutions
	Total Number of Students	Total Student Savings	Total Number of Students	Total Student Savings
Summer 2017	195	$171,239.00	7	$15,691.00
Fall 2017	509	$1,057,812.53	34	$170,646.50
Winter 2017-18	39	$23,758.19	5	$7,659.00
Spring 2018	461	$919,787.05	42	$171,160.00
TOTALS		$2,172,596.77		$365,156.50

Annual student totals are not provided, as individual recipients may have been enrolled across multiple terms during the year. Student headcount data are aggregated at the term level to protect student privacy.

In total, students from 25 public postsecondary institutions (14 community colleges and 11 public four-year institutions) benefited from the nonresident tuition exemption authorized under the Article. Total student savings equaled $2,537,753.27. The remaining three public postsecondary institutions indicated that no students benefited from the tuition exemption.

- At the 14 Maryland community colleges, the largest number of students who benefited from the nonresident tuition exemption occurred during the Fall 2017 semester, with 509 total students. Over the 2017-2018 reporting period, this exemption resulted in a total student savings of $2,172,596.77.
- At the 11 Maryland four-year public institutions, the largest number of students who benefitted from the nonresident tuition exemption occurred during the Spring 2018 semester, with 42 total students. Over the 2017-2018 reporting period, this exemption resulted in a total student savings of $365,156.50.
